

The MOORE CATCHMENT

PEOPLE

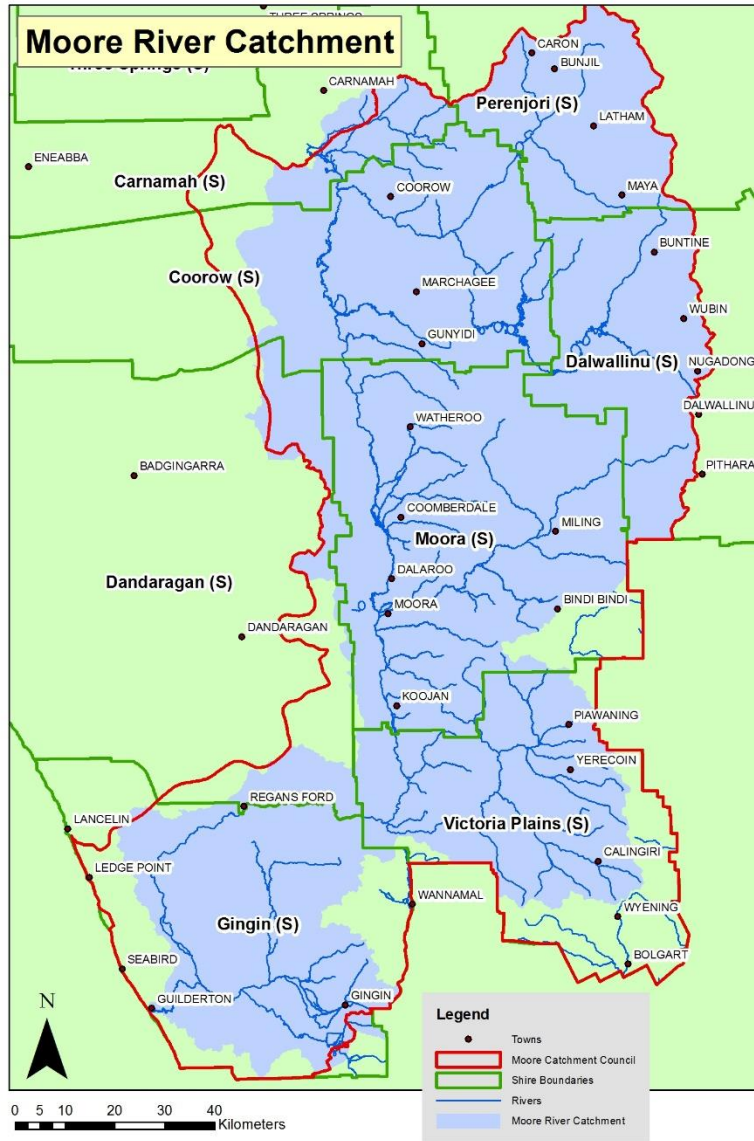

ECONOMY

ENVIRONMENT

Moore Catchment Council

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

Moore River Catchment

Moore River Catchment

- Moore River catchment starts an hour north of Perth. 1.4 million hectares
- The Moore Catchment Council (MCC) boundary aligns closely with the River catchment boundary. 8 Shires including most of Shire of Victoria Plains
- Moore Catchment Council is a community landcare group. 2 staff – 1 Landcare Officer (Rachel) and EO (Helen). Office in Moora

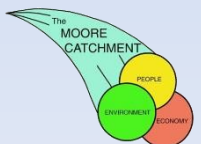

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

 2023 projects

MCC current focus

- ❖ 1 Carnaby's conservation
- ❖ 2 Coastal rehabilitation
- ❖ 3 Promoting Moore natural assets
- ❖ 4 Conserving Moore natural assets
- ❖ 5 Healthy soils
- ❖ 6 Aboriginal partnership & engagement

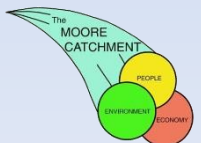

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

Carnaby's Black Cockatoo conservation

Funded through:

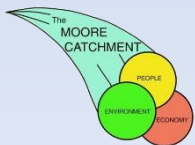

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

Coastal Rehabilitation

Guilderton planting teams June 2021

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

natural resource management program

Promoting Moore natural assets

2021 Sep

The Last Stand 2
Moora

The Last Stand 2021

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

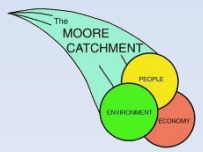

Promoting Moore natural assets

2023
May

The Last Stand
Perth

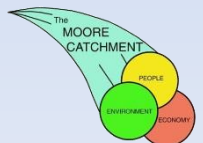

The Last Stand, Perth May 2023

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

Conserving Moore natural assets

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

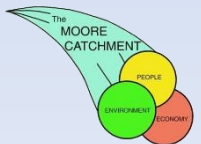

Funded through:

natural resource
management program

Conserving Moore natural assets

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

Funded through:

natural resource
management program

Conserving Moore natural assets

Mt Yule Gum (Eucalyptus recta) project

Threatened WA Wheatbelt tree <3500 left Walebing site. 60 mature left, no regeneration Project has more than tripled population

Mature Mt Yule Gum (Eucalyptus recta)

One of the planted sites on Mt Yule hill

E. recta is a beautiful rare Wheatbelt tree

Yued crew picked seed Jan 2018

Yued crew processed seed

2017

Eucalyptus recta project

Mt Yule gums planted winter 2018

2021

From bare to revegetated in 4 yrs

Old mature tree

Huge growth in 2021

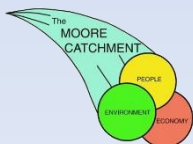

This project was delivered by

This project was funded by

natural resource
management program

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

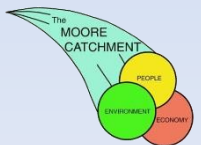

Funded through:

natural resource
management program

Healthy Soils, Healthy Environment, Healthy Community

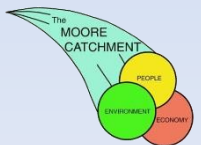

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

natural resource
management program

Aboriginal engagement and partnership

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

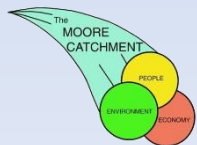

Funded through:

natural resource
management program

Aboriginal engagement and partnership

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

Funded through:

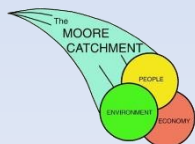

natural resource management program

Community engagement activities

Funded through:

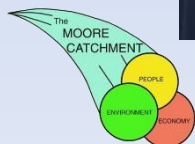

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

natural resource management program

School engagement activities

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

Funded through:

natural resource
management program

Big Carnaby sculpture for Moora

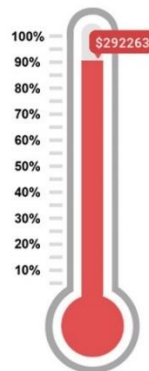

Big Carnabys Sculpture update 20.06.23

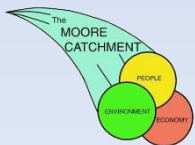

The Big Carnabys Sculpture photo shows accurate scale rather than definite location

Goal: $316800

PROPOSED MOORA'S BIG CARNABYS SCULPTURE
STANDING APPROX
10.7 METRES
IN APEX PARK

facebook

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

Award winners

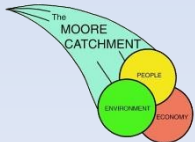

2021 Nov
WA Landcare Awards
Partnerships for Landcare
WINNERS

2021 WESTERN AUSTRALIAN LANDCARE AWARDS
Australian Government Partnerships for Landcare Award Moore Catchment Council and the Yued Community of Moora

Photographer FB: facebook.com/ammoncreative IG: @ammoncreative

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

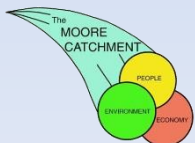

MCC funders

natural resource management program

Plus admin help from

protecting the natural resources in the Moore River Catchment

Moore Catchment Council

Conserving the Moore River catchment

natural resource management program

